CHARGE AGAINST ARMY OFFICER IS THAT HE QUARRELED WITH A PLUMBER.

Washington, May 12.-Senator Rayner of Maryland today spoke in the senate on his resolution directing the appointing of a + fatally. committee to investigate charges against Colonel William F. Stewart of the coast | where the principal damage and loss artillery, now stationed at Fort Grant (Ariz.), by order of the president, saying a communication had been sent to Colonel Stewart informing him that improvements would be made in the sanitary conditions of Fort Grant if he desired. Mr. Rayner added:

Frivolous Charges.

The same sort of communication passed to Dreyfus, I think. The charges against clonel Stewart," said Mr. Rayner, "are frivolous and petty, and don't, in the slightest degree, reflect on his character as a man, his character as a citizen or his courage as a soldier. One of them is that he has 'temperamental infirmi-"The president has come to the conclu not one Colonel Stewart makes against the president, but that the president makes against Colonel Stewart.

Refined Sarcasm

"He has not," continued Mr. Rayner, "the temperament of the president, that fine system of adjustment that always suggests restraint, calmness and moderation. He thinks Colonel Stewart should yield as he, the president, has done on similar occasions. It is known that the president never indulges in forcible and vehement excision, either in oral or writ-ten communications; that he is free from many of the faults of the race, and that he has given us the most serene and placid presidential epoch we have ever an blessed with.

President's Reply to Rayner.

Mr. Rayner read his letter to the presthe senate a resolution demanding an in into the Stewart case, and then the president's reply, interpolating his own comments on the president's words as he went along.
"At present I do not see how a court of inquiry could be of use," the presi-dent stated in his letter, "as I do not see how any court could express an opinion which I could pay more heed to than the judgment of Wade, Grant, Mur-Duvall and Davis, on whose judg-t I have acted." Mr. Rayner paused in the reading to officers named by the president had been premoted over the head of Colonel Stewark to the positions they now occupy.

Had Made Up His Mind.

Continuing, he read the president's let-ter saving the charcs against Colonel Stewart already had been established and he did not see what more a court of inquiry could do. "This," exclaimed Mr. Rayner, "Is the president's interpretation of his constitutional prerogative. It has never been paralleled in the military records of American history."

president's letter to Mr. Rayner stated that he would give further consideration to the senator's demand for court of inquiry. The president added that there was nothing to find out, as nothing additional could more clearly establish the facts, and said this was or of the many cases of "contentious" army officers demanding courts of inquiry to grant which would destroy the discipline of the army. The president added that he did not understand Mr. Rayner's allusion to a joint resolution of congress, "I advised him to consult his attorney general, but I do not suppose he could row much light on it either," inter-sed Mr. Rayner, amid laughter.

Under Control of Congress. Mr. Rayner declared that the president, mmander-in-chief of the army, was the control of congress, and had to no right to inflict punishment. Mr. Rayner discussed from a legal point of view precedents for congress ordering courts of inquiry-particularly the cases of General Howard and Admiral Schley. Taking up the point as to what constituted courts of inquiry, the senator said the authorities were all against the president having the slightest right to punish an officer without a court, and no commanding general had such right. He declared that the president was deter-mined to keep Colonel Stewart in exile for three years, when he would be retired on account of age, and he added:

Nothing Like It in Europe.

"The president says to him, 'Stay there or surrender and retire.' No such edict was ever contemplated in the imperial He declared that abroad army officers lose their identity, but in the United States the constitution guarantees every man's life, liberty and property unle taken from him by due process of law. Rayner brought out the fact that Colonel Stewart's wife was a the late Senator Pinckney Whyte, and a great-granddaughter of William Pinckney of Maryland. WIRES DOWN AND DETAILS OF THE HORROR LACKING.

 Omaha, May 12.—Twelve persons are known to have been killed and a score injured by a tornado which swept over the northern part of Sarpy county at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The storm, which gained in velocity on its way south, started in Omaha about 4:30. At Bellevue the college buildings were damaged to the extent of probably $50,000, and several persons were injured, none fatally. The storm then moved on to fatally. The storm then moved on to Louisville, Richfield and Springfield.

Springfield, Neb., May 12.-A tornade late this afternoon wrecked the towns of Louisville, Bellevue and Richfield, killing several persons and injuring a large number. The heaviest loss of life and injured is reported from Louisville, a junction point of the Missouri Pacific and Burlington railroads, in Cass county. The number of deaths is unknown and no names have been secured, but it is said between forty and sixty are injured, many seriously and some fatally. The town of Bellevue is declared practically wiped out, but it is not known that there are any fatalities. Bellevue is the seat of a Presbyterian college.

Near the village of Richfield Elmer Leader was killed and his father was badly injured. Ed Faller, a farmer living near Richfield, was fatally injured.

House Committee Will Not Report During Present Session of Congress.

EXCUSES OF THE CHAIRMAN

SAYS PUBLISHERS REFUSED TO SUPPLY INFORMATION.

Washington, May 42.-In connection with the wood pulp tariff investigation Chairman Mann of the house committee having the matter in charge, today made sharp complaint of the failure of the newspaper publishers to come forward and supply the committee with facts bearing upon their charges. He called attention to their criticisms and then contrasted them with the refusal of many of them to supply the information which, said, it was necessary the committee to have in preparing its report. He de-clared it to be the desire of the committee to report during this session, but in-timated that the course of the publishers might prevent its doing so.

He quoted from a newspaper article to show that the company took the pulp that was imported and put it into its export paper in order that it might get the benefit of the reduced cost as it would have four-fifths of $1.67 on every ton imports by reason of rebates from the government.

Question of Contracts.

At this point the committee was met with the refusal of the New York Times to produce its contract with the Inter-national Paper company. Mr. Norris had said that the Boston Herald, according to his understanding, had a contract with the International Paper company calling for shipments on the basis of cost of manufacture, and providing for audit to determine the cost.

"Is this similar to the New York Times contract?" asked Mr. Sims.
"So I understand," replied Mr. Norris.

Utah wool situation yesterday, when it was whispered that certain woolgrowers, who have figured prominently in the agitation for the storing in Boston of this year's clip, have been approached with tempting offers by buyers and have been won away from the movement. It is said that some of these men have been offered 16 and 18 cents for their wool. The name of one prominent wool man, it is said, is being used by the wool buyers in their efforts to discourage the sheepmen of the state from joining in the plan of storing wool until the market is better. ket is better.

The sheepmen are investigating these reports and interesting developments may take place in the next few days. It was said yesterday that every agent in Salt Lake representing eastern wool-buying concerns was out of the city. The buyers' agents, it was said, have scat-tered throughout the state, in an effort to defeat the united movement of the Encouraging Assurance.

Although the circulars to the 700 woolgrowers of Utah were not sent out until last night, and probably none of them is as yet in the hands of a sheepman, Secretary Stewart of the Utah Woolgrow ers says that he already has the assur other newspapers with larger contracts and larger prices about which no inquiry paign was begun to unite the sheepmen. 600 pounds of wood will be stored in Bos-

Yesterday there was another long stream of woolgrowers passing in and out of Mr. Stewart's office, in the Mc Cornick block. In the afternoon, it was decided, for the convenience of everybody concerned, in the future to make the headquarters of the movement in the office of the Utah board of sheep commissioners in the Scott building.

"I have been surprised at the interest that has been taken in the fight for better prices," said Mr. Stewart. "I am not only receiving callers, but am deluged with letters. The persons heard from so far have gained their information from The next witnesses to be examined the newspapers.
